How Open ACU Referrals Works

How to get a free month of Open ACU

Refer a friend to Open ACU using your clinic's unique referral code which you will find on `Account > Referrals`. This will take $55 off their cost at signup, meaning their first month is free! Once they've completed two months with Open ACU, you'll get a $55 credit to your account.

Here are the steps to copying your code and sharing as found on the Open ACU admin portal.

The Details

To qualify, your referee must sign up for Open ACU using your clinic's unique referral link, and complete two months of service with Open ACU. You will receive a $55 credit to your account, which will be applied to the next month's service fee. If you refer multiple new customers and earn multiple $55 credits, those will be applied on subsequent months. Referee Terms: To qualify, you must sign up for Open ACU using a referral link. This will subtract $55 from the amount due at signup. The standard $75 signup fee will still be due at the time of signup.
